Centers for Academic Programs Abroad (CAPA)

CAPA was founded in 1972 as a non-profit organization to provide students and faculty with quality overseas study programs. CAPA will coordinate all the logistics of your program including payments, air transportation, group travel, accommodations, study centers and insurance.

CAPA is committed to sharing our experience, expertise and concern with students in order to help them become contributing, educated members of the global community.

THE CAPA MISSION

CAPA is committed to the academic, cultural and personal enrichment of college students and educators through the development of quality international education programs. We are dedicated to providing personalized services, knowledge and expertise to faculty and students in order that they may benefit from and contribute to today's dynamic global community.

Summer Session in...

Kingston-Upon-Thames

MAY 31 - JUNE 30, 2006

WHY STUDY ABROAD IN ENGLAND?

Realize your academic goals while immersing yourself in day-to-day British life and culture. Loved and respected for her museums, theatre, architecture, and academic institutions – not to mention those famous English institutions, Tea and the Pub – England has something to offer everyone. You will appreciate the abundance of opportunities available, whether your interests lie in the literature, history, arts, or nightlife.

ABOUT KINGSTON-UPON-THAMES

In Kingston-Upon-Thames, just south of London, students will earn transferable college credit from Chabot College. ISLS students will stay in British homes at Kingston-Upon-Thames, Surrey, about half an hour from central London. Participants will not only study but will experience in daily life the history and culture of England.

ACADEMIC COURSES

English 20 Humanities 7

Six (6) units transferable credit

Studies in Shakespeare Contemporary Humanities

Chabot Faculty : Don Skiles

FACULTY

DON SKILES received his BA and MA (with Honors) from San Francisco State. He is a widely published writer; his collection of short stories, Miss America and Other Stories, was nominated for the Hemingway Award. He participated in the study tours of 1992 and 1998.

FLIGHTS

Wednesday, May 31st, 2006: San Francisco to London
Friday, June 30th, 2006: London to San Francisco

Round-trip air on a regularly scheduled major airline is included in the total program fee. The exact schedule will be distributed to all participants at the final orientation. Tickets will be distributed and seat assignments made upon check-in at San Francisco International airport.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Students will live with local families in their homes. All families are carefully screened and selected by CAPA personnel overseas. The CAPA Local Organizer will use the information that students provide on their CAPA accommodation form to place students with local families. All students will have their own room, a desk, and key to the house. Daily breakfast and dinner are included.

The homestays will provide students with a place to call home where they can receive phone calls and mail, watch television, do homework, and, in most cases, do their laundry. In addition, students will have a link to the local culture and customs, including events and services, organizations and medical services.

EXCURSIONS AND ACTIVITIES

LONDON (half day): Get to know London on a half-day panoramic city tour with a private motorcoach and a guide. The Blue Badge guide will highlight cultural and historical sights like the Houses of Parliament, Buckingham Palace and the West End. Although the tour will not include a tour of the interior of these historical sites, there will be opportunities to stop and take photos.

SALISBURY, STONEHENGE, AVEBURY (full day): In Salisbury, see the original Magna Carta and the cathedral with its cloud-piercing spire. Visit the mysterious monoliths in Stonehenge, and view the ancient standing stones of Avebury. Includes coaching, guide in Salisbury, lunch voucher, and entrances.

CANTERBURY (full day): Explore the cloisters and huge Norman cathedral, the nearby Roman wall, 12th and 16th century timbered houses and quaint shops along the main street. Coaching, entrance to the cathedral and lunch voucher are included.

STRATFORD-ON-AVON (full day): In Stratford-Upon-Avon, visit Shakespeare's birthplace, Anne Hathaway's thatched roofed cottage and Mary Arden's house, attend one evening theater performance.

INDEPENDENT TRAVEL: Use your free weekends to travel to Europe's great cities. CAPA's local staff will assist you in choosing destinations and transportation. Student favorites include Paris, Amsterdam, Barcelona, Dublin and the French Riviera.
