Doubt by John Patrick Shanley

<http://tinyurl.com/6bk7c>

Literature Resource Center is the first place to go to online to find authoritative biographies and literary criticisms on authors. For this assignment, we recommend you begin with author. An online tutorial in PowerPoint on LRC is available at: <http://tinyurl.com/5w2phc>.

Search Tips: NOTE: unlike any other database, please do NOT select peer-reviewed below. It actually will remove key peer-reviewed articles that way. Instead, look at the Literary Criticisms on the Search Result screen.

Name of Work Search

To find criticisms of a work, click on Name of Work below the Basic Search screen. Enter the name of the work.

Intertextual Search

To find works LIKE your author or work, you often need to look at criticisms first to see what critics have compared the work to. Simply select All Text for either author or the name of the work. You can also search more indirectly with search terms that describe the work at hand. Enter your search terms with AND in between each search term, and then select "All Text" in the Basic Search screen. For example,
