

What is PACE?

PACE is a Degree and Transfer program designed specifically for working adults

“Program for Adult College Education” Learning Community

- Complete your AA Degree in 3 years or less
- Designed for Working Adults
- Take all your classes in a Learning Community
- The Learning Community creates a support network
- Weekday Evening, Saturday and Online classes
- No fuss scheduling: classes are pre-selected for you!
- Instructors teach toward adult learners
- Counseling support, including email newsletter
- Includes General Education classes
- Meets AA Degree Requirements
- Meets CSU General Education Transfer Requirements
- “College within a College” networking opportunities

...then Transfer to PACE Program at CSU East Bay

PACE majors at CSU East Bay include:

- Human Development Major
 - Combines sociology, psychology, anthropology
 - Leads to jobs in counseling, psychotherapy, education, social work, business, public administration, law, medicine, theology, gerontology, anthropology, working with special populations, etc.
 - Classes available online or in-person
- Leadership in Hospitality & Leisure Services Major
 - Become a manager in the tourism & leisure industry. Classes mostly online!
- Liberal Studies Major
 - Provides rich education in a broad range of disciplines
 - Leads to K-8 Teaching Credential or jobs in business, government
 - Good preparation for graduate work, law school
- Business Studies Option or Minor available
- Other Majors are available with additional classes

Additional Transfer opportunities are available, including accelerated degree-completion programs at St. Mary's, USF, JFK, Menlo College, etc.

Visit www.chabotcollege.edu/PACE

for class schedule, application & registration info, FAQs

Contact PACE: PACE@chabotcollege.edu or 510/723-6619