Student Life office

Mission

"The of Student Life office plays an essential role in campus through offering a multitude of campus events and activities for students. The department collaborates with campus departments, programs, and organizations to develop, plan, and implement college activities for a diverse student population."

The vision of the Student Life office is to enhance the academic experience through involvement in campus life, support student to contribute to their educational mission, leadership strengths, personal growth, and a community contribution.

With support of the College mission, our goal is to create academic excellence by helping college clubs to enhance in leadership development opportunities, and by providing various experiences to our cultural diversity for the Chabot College Students. Education happens both inside and outside the classroom, and a successful college career includes social as well as intellectual development.

The Student Life office coordinates campus activities, and provide opportunities for leadership and engagement such as the Student Senate of Chabot College and the Inter Club Council. Our staff will be happy to assist you.
