Course Sequence ESL Students

If you do NOT yet speak, read, and write fluently in English (college level), do NOT take the English Assessment Test.

Instead:

* Note: Chabot ESL classes start at the Intermediate level.

STOP
Take the ESL Assessment test (CELSA). This test will determine which level of ESL class will benefit you most. Your starting point will be either:
ESL 110A, B, C or D

You are ready for English 101A or 102.

* Note: Chabot ESL classes start at the Intermediate level.
