

The Chabot College Foundation Gladiator of the Year Award

The Chabot College Foundation has instituted a tradition to recognize individuals who have a connection with the College and have also had a dynamic impact on the surrounding community. The Foundation will seek nominations and also consider individuals who do not seek attention but all the while support Chabot College and make our community a better place to live.

Previous Awardees:

Spring 2006: Dr. Harry Dvorsky, Eden Medical Center
Mrs. Isobel Dvorsky, Chabot-Las Positas Community College District Trustee

Fall 2006: Dr. Reed Buffington, Founding Chabot College President, 1961-1981
Mr. Anthony Batarse, Jr., Distinguished Alumnus, Community Philanthropist and Business Leader

Spring 2007: Mr. Paul Russo, Distinguished Alumnus, Business and Community Leader
Honorable Richard Valle, Distinguished Alumnus, Public Servant and Business Leader

Fall 2007: Dr. Robert Carlson, Chabot College President and Community Leader

Spring 2008: Honorable Gail Steele, Alameda County Supervisor and advocate for children

The Gladiator of the Year Award is an artful bronze statue designed by Chabot College Art Professor Clayton Thiel and commissioned by the Chabot College Foundation. The artwork is the exclusive property of the Chabot College Foundation and the Office of the President at Chabot College.

This annual award is sanctioned by the Chabot College Foundation with approval by the Chabot College President.