

Chabot College Two ways to describe our multi-racial, multi-ethnic student body

To describe the race-ethnicity of Chabot students, the federal reporting convention is to count Latinx students first. Then, all other groups are counted based on their racial group, or are put in Multi-Racial if they are in more than one group. However, if we count each race-ethnicity group first, we get a more accurate count of the non-Latinx groups. See below.

Current reporting: Unduplicated (Latinx chosen first)

African American	1,529	11%
Asian American	2,248	16%
Filipino	1,148	8%
Latinx/Hispanic	5,760	40%
Native American	39	<1%
Pacific Islander	220	2%
White	2,307	16%
Multi-Racial	920	6%
Unknown	231	2%

Total Students: 14,402 100%

Fall 2017

Duplicated (each group chosen first)

	2,148	15%
	2,750	19%
	1,639	11%
	5,760	40%
	526	4%
	550	4%
	4,218	29%
	3,279	23%

<--same-->

These percentages are out of total students.

These numbers and percentages will add to more than 100% of total students.

