Policy

The library would like to maintain an environment that is welcoming and conducive to study, so we ask that you refrain from using your cell phone while in the building. Students are asked to set their phones/pagers to silent mode upon entering the Library. Library faculty and staff may approach patrons who are speaking loudly on cell phones and ask them to continue their conversation outside the building. We reserve the right to ask anyone to leave the library if they are disturbing to others.