Policy: Library Orientations

Policy

Instructors are encouraged to schedule a library orientation for students attending their courses. Course related sessions introducing students to information resources and research strategies are scheduled through the Library Services Specialist and require a minimum of one week’s notice. Instructors are required to attend each orientation and are given the opportunity to enrich the session with thoughts, suggestions and queries. An online orientation request form can be submitted at:

http://www.chabotcollege.edu/library2.0/orientationrequest/request.cfm?CFID=4874995&CF TOKEN=60192914