
Using Pronouns Accurately (I, she, he, it, you, they, we)

1. My nurse is Ms. Johnson. ___ is very helpful.
2. My mother and father came to the clinic because ___ have heart problems.
3. The doctor's name is Dr. Ching. ___ is from China.
4. The clinic is new in our neighborhood. ___ is very clean.
5. ___ feel very sick today.
6. How do ___ feel today?
7. My sister was taken to the hospital yesterday, because ___ fainted.
8. The paramedics came to the house. ___ were very quick.
9. My children take the medicine, but ___ tastes bad.
10. I tell the children ___ will make them feel better.
11. The doctor said I need more tests. ___ will come back to the clinic for x-rays.
12. ___ asked the radiology technician if the test would take long.
13. The doctor at the clinic said the children's teeth are bad. ___ need to go to the dentist.
14. ___ do not have money for the dentist.
15. The medical assistant, Jane, said ___ could go to the Dental Hygiene Clinic.
16. ___ gave me the phone number of the clinic.
17. The children are worried about the dentist. ___ asked if it would hurt.
18. The hygienist's name was Marcos. He said ___ would not hurt.
19. ___ was very gentle with the children.
20. ___ were taught to brush their teeth and got new toothbrushes.

Using Pronouns Accurately (I, she, he, it, you, they, we)

1. My nurse is Ms. Johnson. She is very helpful.
2. My mother and father came to the clinic because they have heart problems.
3. The doctor's name is Dr. Ching. He is from China.
4. The clinic is new in our neighborhood. It is very clean.
5. I feel very sick today.
6. How do you feel today?
7. My sister was taken to the hospital yesterday, because she fainted.
8. The paramedics came to the house. They were very quick.
9. My children take the medicine, but it tastes bad.
10. I tell the children it will make them feel better.
11. The doctor said I need more tests. I will come back to the clinic for x-rays.
12. I asked the radiology technician if the test would take long.
13. The doctor at the clinic said the children's teeth are bad. They need to go to the dentist.
14. I do not have money for the dentist.
15. The medical assistant, Jane, said we could go to the Dental Hygiene Clinic.
16. She gave me the phone number of the clinic.
17. The children are worried about the dentist. They asked if it would hurt.
18. The hygienist's name was Marcos. He said it would not hurt.
19. He was very gentle with the children.
20. They were taught to brush their teeth and got new toothbrushes.