
Using Contractions Accurately

(I'm, she's, he's, it's, you're, we're, they're, I'll, she'll, you'll, he'll, they'll)

1. ____ worried about my new patient, Mr. Chan.
2. ____ very upset and is hearing voices.
3. ____ been keeping close watch on him since he arrived.
4. ____ been in the hospital before for this problem.
5. ____ usually very busy on the night shift.
6. He fell off his bike. His arm is bent, so ____ going to the emergency room
7. ____ very busy in the emergency room today.
8. ____ going to be a long wait.
9. ____ going to x-ray for pictures of his arm.
10. ____ nice to watch the other children for me.
11. ____ be pleased to know you passed the test.
12. ____ be hiring new medical assistants next month.
13. When the applications are available, ____ let me know, won't you?
14. ____ fill them out together.
15. When I finish here, ____ come in to help you with your work.
16. If we work together, ____ finish earlier.
17. I think ____ write letters of recommendation for us.
18. ____ let us borrow his computer tomorrow.
19. Maybe, ____ help us with our resume. She told us to ask if we needed help.
20. My parents are happy for me because ____ almost finished with college.

Using Contractions Accurately (I'm, she's, he's, it's, you're, we're, they're, I'll, she'll, you'll, he'll, they'll)

1. I'm worried about my new patient, Mr. Chan.
2. He's very upset and is hearing voices.
3. We've been keeping close watch on him since he arrived.
4. He's been in the hospital before for this problem.
5. It's usually very busy on the night shift.
6. He fell off his bike. His arm is bent, so we're going to the emergency room
7. They're very busy in the emergency room today.
8. It's going to be a long wait.
9. They're going to x-ray for pictures of his arm.
10. You're nice to watch the other children for me.
11. You'll be pleased to know you passed the test.
12. They'll be hiring new medical assistants next month.
13. When the applications are available, you'll let me know, won't you?
14. We'll fill them out together.
15. When I finish here, I'll come in to help you with your work.
16. If we work together, we'll finish earlier.
17. I think they'll write letters of recommendation for us.
18. He'll let us borrow his computer tomorrow.
19. Maybe, she'll help us with our resume. She told us to ask if we needed help.
20. My parents are happy for me because I'm almost finished with college.