Chabot Candidate Debate

The Associated Students of Chabot College will be hosting a debate between the candidates running for election to the Board of Trustees on Tuesday October 28th, 2008. As most of you know, Dr. Alison Lewis will be leaving the district and her seat will be on the ballot for the November 4th election.

The candidates are Marshall Mitzman, Founding Chair of the Chabot College Foundation and Jesus Armas, Hayward City Manager.

The event will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Little Theater. Refreshments will be served.

Questions are currently being accepted through your respective senates. There will also be some time set aside to field questions from the audience.

Employment Binder

The Office of Student Life has composed a binder filled with local part-time and non-profit employment opportunities. This is a fairly new service we provide. We are not nearly as renounced as the Transfer, Employment & Career Services Center (TECS) nor will we even try to compete with their postings. We are simply giving students a quick reference guide to local posted jobs. Please pass on the message as needed. Binder is located in Room 2355 (student Life) on the coffee table.

MONGOL at Chabot!

In recognition of International Education Week the International Club of Chabot College with sponsorship by the ASCC invites you to attend its 6th Annual International Dinner and a Movie Event. Each year the International Club of Chabot College selects one country to be represented. This year Mongolia has been selected. Past festivals and countries represented have been Rwanda (Hotel Rwanda), Thailand (Tom-Yum-Goong), India (Water) and France (La Vie en Rose). Join us as we try to recreate Mongolia at dinner followed by the 2008 Academy Award Best Foreign Film nominated movie: Mongol (The Untold Story of the Rise of Genghis Khan).

Date: Tuesday, November 18, 2008, 6-9:00 pm
Dinner: Mongolian Cuisine (6:00-7:00 pm Building 900 Old Art Gallery)
Movie: Mongol (7:00-9:00 pm Room 1232)
Cost of Dinner: $5.00 Students, $10.00 General
Movie: Free

Mongol

2008 Academy Award Nominee for Best Foreign Film

Language: Mongolian (with English subtitles)

Rated: R

Subtitled "The Untold Story of the Rise of Genghis Khan," director Sergei Bodrov's sweeping MONGOL focuses on battles physical and emotional as it follows the early ascent of the "Great King" in the 12th and 13th centuries. Gorgeously shot on location in Kazakhstan and Inner Mongolia, MONGOL represents the first in a proposed trilogy of films that will chronicle the full impact of Genghis Khan's reign. As ambitious in scope as its subject was in life, MONGOL--a 2008 Academy Award nominee for Best Foreign Language Film--offers a unique look at the influence of love and loyalty to the life and times of one of history's most enigmatic rulers.

Mongol* Reviews:

"Full of stunning views of China, Mongolia and Kazakhstan and showing an unexpected side of Genghis Khan, MONGOL feels like an old-fashioned epic."-- Kenneth Turan, Los Angeles Times

"[A] big, ponderous epic, its beautifully composed landscape shots punctuated by thundering hooves and bloody, slow-motion battle sequences."-- A. O. Scott, New York Times

For additional information or to purchase advance dinner tickets, please contact the International Student Program. We hope to see you at both the dinner and the movie but feel free to attend one of the two. Please enjoy the poster below and feel free to print the attached copy to post in your area.
