

Spring 2022 Chabot College Speaker Series

Thursday, February 3, 3:00 - 4:30 p.m.
Attendance via Zoom

Tyler Campbell

Tyler recalls life-changing words learned from his father at an early age, "A Campbell Never Quits." When confronted with life's obstacles, these words provided strength and encouragement. Tyler received a football Scholarship to San Diego State University in 2005. While attending SDSU, he was a consistent scholar athlete and contributed mightily on the gridiron for the Aztecs. The tides of life came rolling in during his junior year when he was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis. Tyler became the first individual to play division one college football with the disease. After graduating from SDSU in 2009, Tyler moved back to Austin. An entrepreneur in his own right, Tyler travels the country as a professional speaker delivering empowering and inspiring messages of self-worth. Coining the phrase "TC Speaks", Tyler hosts his own on air radio show, Real Lyfe Reel Talk, every Saturday from 12pm-1pm on 104.9 The Horn FM in Austin. The inspirational show has become so popular that the Moody School of Communications, at the University of Texas, has hired him on as a consultant to work with students on their semester podcast projects. Author, can now be added to his resume with the release of his new book "The Ball Came Out: Life From The Other Side Of The Field". Tyler and his wife Shana, along with their 3 children, reside in Texas. Web: www.iamtylercampbell.com
