

SLOAC Committee Agenda 3/3/09

1. FIG update
2. Adjunct Art FIG – Carole Splendore
3. Committee Web page
 - A. Guiding Principles (see next page for changes)
 - Create opportunities for reflection on the education process for students, faculty and staff.
 - Affirm the autonomy, integrity and individuality of the teaching process.
 - Maintain open and continuous dialogue about the SLOA cycle.
 - Make expectations/competencies/procedures for students transparent
 - Through the SLO cycles, every aspect of the college community ultimately contributes to student success.
 - Build a flexible documentation system that can incorporate both quantitative and qualitative information.
 - B. Core Representatives
 - Mug shot (Harjot & Carole)
 - Quote (Harjot, Michelle, Norberto, Stephen, Patricia & Gene)
4. New SLO webpage (list from the Dec meeting)
 - A. Updated information on committee members
 - B. List of SLOAC accomplishments
 - C. Description of FIG projects
 - D. SLOAC guiding principles
 - E. SLO background information
 - F. Useful links
 - G. Explanation of how SLOAC fits with the overall structure of the college.
 - H. FAQ section
 - I. SLO forms
 - J. List of SLOs written
5. Open discussion
6. Examples of other web sites