Bright Horizons® is hiring teachers in Berkeley!

Learn about exciting career opportunities at our Open House!

Bright Horizons is currently hiring infant/toddler teachers that are passionate about helping children discover the joys of learning. If you’re interested in joining our team of exceptional educators, join us for an Open House on February 4!

At our Open House event, you'll have the opportunity to learn about current career opportunities, tour the classrooms and meet with our center management team.

Our state-of-the-art early education center offers:

- Benefits: Competitive salary; paid vacation and holidays; health insurance (medical, dental, vision) and wellness plans; tuition reimbursement; 401(k) savings
- Growth opportunity: Advancement and career opportunities; ongoing professional development through Bright Horizons University
- Commitment to excellence: Welcoming, family-oriented environments, time to plan and implement child-oriented, self-initiated lesson plans; program standards that meet state, local and NAEYC guidelines

If you are interested in a career in early education, there is no better place to be than Bright Horizons. Come see why we’re the only child care organization consistently named as one of FORTUNE magazine’s “100 Best Companies to Work For.”
