EMT-PARAMEDIC:

Administers advanced life support care to sick and injured persons in the pre-hospital and inter-facility setting, as authorized and directed by the Medical Director, and Base Station Physician or Mobile Intensive Care Nurse, by performing the following duties, within the prescribed scope of practice and all applicable regulatory guidelines for prehospital care.

REQUIREMENTS:
CA Paramedic License Required, National Registry Preferred
LA County Paramedic Scope of Practice Accreditation
CPR card
ACLS
PALS
CA Driver’s License
CA Ambulance Driver’s Certificate
DL-51
Ability to obtain LA DOT Ambulance Operator License after job offer
H-6 Report from CA DMV dated within 14 days.

DUTIES:
Receives and gives an accurate and concise report regarding the patient's condition, necessary interventions, and medical outcome of treatments administered.
Assesses nature and extent of illness or injury to establish and prioritize medical procedures to be followed or need for additional assistance.
Restores and stabilizes heart rhythm and ventilation on the pulseless and/or no breathing patient.
Provides cardiac monitoring, including interpretation and recording.
Takes and records patient's vital signs, including blood pressure, heart rate and respiratory rate.
Initiates intravenous access to administer medications or fluids.
Performs advanced airway management, including endotracheal intubation, to establish an airway and ventilate patients.
Administers oral, sublingual, parenteral, and inhaled medications.
Assists in extricating trapped victims and administers initial treatment at emergency scenes.
Drives mobile intensive care unit.
Transports sick and injured persons to acute receiving and extended care facilities.
Observes, records, and reports to the Base Station; patient's condition and reaction to drugs, interventions, treatments, and significant incidents.
Communicates with the Base Station and other medical personnel via radio-telephone.
Participates in Quality Improvement activities of the EMS Agency, Base Station hospital and the Company including chart audits, peer review and data collection activities, tape reviews and focused studies.
Serves as a company representative promoting positive customer relationships through proactive involvement in public business and community activities.
Salary DOE
Full time and Part time Available
Apply online: http://www.prnambulance.com/jobs.html