Thrive Support Services is Seeking Independent Living Skills Instructors!
Thrive Support Services is currently seeking support staff.

About Us:
Thrive Support Services is an agency that provides Independent Living Skills Instruction to adults with Developmental Disabilities throughout the East Bay Area including Contra Costa and Alameda Counties. Thrive Support Services was founded with the goal of doing whatever is necessary to help adults with developmental disabilities Thrive in their own homes and chosen communities. We believe that every individual, regardless of disability, has the right to live in the place of their choosing and with the people they want by their side. We have consistently grown in our efforts and continue to see more and more clients living successful and productive lives. We truly see this endeavor as a way to make a difference in people’s lives every day.

What We Offer:
- Competitive wages.
- An excellent benefits package including employer paid dental/vision/life insurance, EAP, and Costco card for fulltime (30 hours/week) employees.
- Flexible scheduling (depending on client’s needs).
- A compassionate and caring management team.
- Positions with a purpose, where you will see the difference you are making in someone’s life.

About The Position:
Thrive Support Services, Inc. is looking for Independent Living Skills Instructors to help adults with developmental disabilities learn to live independently in the community. ILS Instructors work with our clients to assist them with learning and gaining the skills necessary to be successful living in the community. Current openings available include clients in the East bay area (Danville, Walnut Creek, Concord, Pittsburg, Antioch, Hayward, Oakland, Berkeley, and Richmond).
This position is part time to begin, with the schedule to be decided between the instructor, the client and the Program Coordinator and there is potential for growth to full time. This is an excellent position for college or graduate students or individuals seeking supplemental income. We prefer that all prospective applicants be able to give at least a one year commitment.
Previous experience working with individuals with developmental disabilities is not required but is a strong plus. Individual’s familiar with dealing with challenging behaviors is also a strong plus.

Who We Are Looking For:
Our Independent Living Skills Instructors must:
- Pass a Department of Justice criminal background check
- Pass a Pre-Employment Drug Screen
- Either have or be willing to become CPR/First Aid certified
- Have access to reliable transportation (All instructors are paid for mileage incurred in the course of working for our clients)
- Have a clean driving record
- Car Insurance
- Experience is great but not required
