KOFY-TV SPRING 2015 INTERNSHIP

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE SPRING 2015 INTERN POSITIONS

The Bay Area’s KOFY-TV20 offers an Internship Program designed for students interested in gaining exposure and experience to the Broadcasting Industry. Internships are active throughout the year offered during the Spring (Jan-May), Summer (June-Aug), and Fall (Sept-Dec). All Internships are unpaid and students must earn college credits by enrolling in an Internship class.

Currently we are offering intern positions in the following areas:

PROMOTIONS/PRODUCTION
KOFY TV20 is looking for Spring 2015 interns to assist in both the Promotions/Street Team & Production Departments. We want enthusiastic, hardworking people…the best of the best!

As a KOFY TV Promotions & Production Intern you will be asked to:

- Assist the Marketing & Promotions staff at on-site events throughout the Bay Area as well as with website, social media, on-air hosting segments, and local KOFY TV shows as needed.
- Duties can also include some office and clerical work, as well as participation in promotions, contests and event coordination.
- Additional duties can include camera shooting, floor directing, editing and graphic works (based on ability and skill-set).

You must have a valid California Driver’s License. Bi-lingual is a plus.
INTERNSHIP REQUIREMENTS:

- Students must be enrolled at a four-year or junior college.
- Students must be in junior or senior standing.
- Students must be able to intern a complete semester term.
- Students must be able to satisfy an average of 15 hours per week.
- Provide letter of participation in an internship class from your college advisor/professor.
- Every effort will be made to arrange hours around student’s class schedule.
