Thrive Support Services is Seeking Parenting Support Instructors!

Thrive Support Services is currently seeking support staff.

About Us:
Thrive Support Services is an agency that provides Parenting Support Instruction to adults with Developmental Disabilities throughout the East Bay Area including Contra Costa and Alameda Counties. Thrive Support Services was founded with the goal of doing whatever is necessary to help adults with developmental disabilities thrive in their own homes and chosen communities. We believe that every individual, regardless of disability, has the right to live in the place of their choosing and with the people they want by their side. We have consistently grown in our efforts and continue to see more and more clients living successful and productive lives. We truly see this endeavor as a way to make a difference in people’s lives every day.

What We Offer:
- Competitive wages.
- An excellent benefits package including employer paid dental/vision/ life insurance, EAP, and Costco card for fulltime (30 hours/week) employees.
- Flexible scheduling (depending on client’s needs).
- A compassionate and caring management team.
- Positions with a purpose, where you will see the difference you are making in someone’s life.

About The Position:
Thrive Support Services, Inc. is looking for Parenting Support Instructors to support adults with developmental disabilities to parent their children as independently as possible, in the community of their choosing. Parenting Support Instructors work with our clients to assist them with learning and mastering the skills necessary to be successful throughout their child(ren)’s developmental milestones.

Thrive supports clients in the East bay area including, but not limited to Antioch, Pittsburg, Oakley, Danville, Walnut Creek, Concord, Hayward, San Leandro, Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, and Richmond.

Part time and full time positions are available with a flexible schedule. This is an excellent position for college or graduate students or individuals seeking supplemental income. We prefer that all prospective applicants be able to give at least a one year commitment. Previous experience working with individuals with developmental disabilities and/or physical limitations as well as experience with children is preferred. Individuals’ familiar with generic resources and community-based supports and programs for parents and children is also a strong plus.
Who We Are Looking For:

Our Parenting Support Instructors must:
- Pass a Department of Justice criminal background check
- Pass a Pre-Employment Drug Screen
- Either have or be willing to become CPR/First Aid certified
- Have access to reliable transportation (All instructors are paid for mileage incurred in the course of working with our clients)
- Have a clean driving record
- Car Insurance

Next Step: How to Apply:

Please visit our website at www.thrivesupportservices.com to read the Parenting Support Instructors Job Description and download an application. To apply, please reply to Jobs@ThriveSupportServices.com with your resume and cover letter in the body of the email.

Interviews will be conducted in Oakland, Antioch, and Emeryville.

Thank you and we hope to hear from you soon!

- $14.00 – 16.00/hour, depending on degree level and experience
