Verification of Dependency Status – Military

Your response to questions on the 2015-2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) indicates that you may not be required to provide parental information. Please read this form carefully, answer the questions below, sign and date this form, and provide the appropriate required documentation according to your circumstances. Your dependency status must be verified before we can determine your financial aid eligibility. You are being asked to provide documentation for the 2015-2016 academic year even if you did so in a previous year. Once your new documentation has been verified as complete and acceptable, it will be retained as part of your financial aid file, and may be requested again in subsequent years if your circumstances change.

Pell Lifetime Eligibility Used (LEU) Effective July 1, 2012, students are limited to a lifetime maximum Pell Grant of 12 semesters / six years or full time equivalent (600%) at any community college, vocational school or four year/bachelor program. Once you reach the 600% Pell LEU, you are ineligible for any additional Pell Grant. Log onto www.nslds.ed.gov using your FAFSA PIN and view your LEU, found on the Financial Aid Review page. For more information: http://studentaid.ed.gov/PORTALSWebApp/students/english/PellLimit.jsp

What this means for you: You must plan now for your future, especially if you plan to transfer to a four year college for a Bachelors degree. The six year limit is a LIFETIME limit, regardless of completion of your academic goals or Bachelors degree. This regulation is in effect even if you have had an appeal approved for failure to meet academic progress, it supersedes any prior offer of aid/award, and the Department of Education allows for no appeal or exception.
