THE HARI MAYA BRIDGE

In celebration of Black History Month and with the generous support of ASCC, Chabot will be hosting two viewings of “The Haramaya Bridge”. The first viewing will be held on Tuesday, February 8th at 5 p.m., and the second viewing will be held on Tuesday, February 15th, both in Room 722 in Building 700. There will also be a question and answer session and a reception with the co-producer, writer, and director, Aaron Woolfolk. Aaron, who was born and raised in the East Bay, is the son of beloved Chabot Faculty Emeritus Leonard Woolfolk. The star of the film, Ben Guillory, will also be attending the reception. This is a rare opportunity to talk to the creator and the star of a wonderful, independent film.

The schedule for the viewing on Tuesday, Friday, February 15th will be as follows: 2 to 4 p.m. viewing of film, question and answer from 4 to 6 p.m., and reception from 6 to 7 p.m. in Room 722.
The Spring 2011 Financial Aid Student Workshops will be held on the following Wednesdays during Spring Semester:

- February 9th
- February 16th
- March 2nd
- March 16th
- April 6th
- April 13th
- April 27th

in Room 709. Workshops will start at 5 p.m. and will end at 7 p.m., with the last walk-in at 6:45 p.m.

Please bring to each of the Financial Aid workshops the following materials: (1) An Email address (submit FAFSA on-site); (2) 2010 W-2 & Federal Income Tax forms (IRS Forms 1040, 1040A, and 1040 EZ); (3) 2010 untaxed income; (4) Driver’s License or State ID; Social Security card; and (5) spouse or parents’ S.S. #s and dates of birth.

If you are not able to attend, please join the Financial Aid staff at the Financial Aid Festival on Saturday, February 26th at 9 a.m. in Building 700.

There will be information available about financial aid, FAFSA assistance, free tax preparation, AB 540 information, details about scholarships, and much more.

GUINNESS-GO-DANCE

On Saturday, February 5th from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., the Alameda County Fairgrounds in Pleasanton will be the site of the Guinness-Go-Dance, a dance party. This is the first time this event will be held, and it is being organized by Dr. Marion Sanchez, Counselor Emeritus from Chabot College. The goal is to set the Guinness record for most seniors dancing at one time. This event is just a warm-up for a world dance record that Dr. Sanchez is trying to accomplish this coming year.

An avid dancer since he was age 13, Dr. Sanchez has been involved in an array of fundraising ventures for charitable organizations and special causes most of his life. And Dr. Sanchez himself has been in the world record books. He carries the title of the fourth-fastest time in the Men’s 60 to 64 age group for the 300-meter long hurdles with a time of 44.24 seconds. He also plays basketball in a league, and is active in many local and national foundations, rotary clubs, and service groups.

For this event, a person 50 years or older is considered a senior, but the dance will be open to people of all ages. Tickets will cost $20 per person, and all proceeds will benefit the Free Wheelchair Mission, which provides wheelchairs to the needy at no cost.

For details or to purchase tickets, please call 1-800-472-3373, or visit the website, http://dancing.ticketleap.com.

The event will include a DJ, live entertainment, dancers and singers, and an Elvis impersonator. The Fairgrounds are located at 4501 Pleasanton Avenue in Pleasanton.

To kick off the semester, the Center for Teaching and Learning is sponsoring multiple workshops to assist you with your student learning outcomes assessment and to continue exploring our year-long theme of Cognition and Learning.

ENTERING SLO DATA IN eLUMEN. Facilitator: Steve Small (Auto Tech). Stop by Room 119 during for assistance entering your Fall 2010 SLO data in eLumen: Tuesday, January 25th, 12 to 1 p.m.; Wednesday, January 26th, 4 to 6 p.m.; and Thursday, January 27th, 12 to 1 p.m.

CREATING ASSESSMENT PLANS. Facilitator: Jennifer Lange (Biology). Stop by Room 119. If you are entering assessment in Spring 2011 or Fall 2011, this workshop will guide you through the process of creating an assessment plan for your course that maps out which assignments will be used for assessing each course level outcome. Workshops: Thursday, January 27th, 1:15 to 2:45 p.m.; and Friday, January 28th, 12:30 to 2 p.m.

COGNITION BOOK CLUB. Facilitator: Dan Alex (Biology). Stop by Room 553. Join us for a discussion of chapter 8 of James Zull’s "The Art of Changing the Brain". This chapter focuses on the use of multiple senses for forming neural connections and building memories. Question for Discussion: What creative techniques do you use to present topical information using multiple sensory modalities? Workshop: Wednesday, January 26th, 12 to 1 p.m.

COGNITION & LEARNING WORKSHOP - EXPLORING LEARNING OBJECTS. Facilitator: Jennifer Lange (Biology). Stop by Room 119. The web has multiple repositories of learning objects, ready-made digital elements that can be incorporated into your lessons to enhance critical thinking and student engagement. We will explore these databases and locate objects that can be used for your class. Workshop: Friday, January 28th from 10 a.m. to 12 noon.

- SPECIAL STUDENT EVENT -

Guest speaker, Tina Flores, will return to campus Thursday, January 27th at 12 noon with a one-year follow up discussion on Haiti. Last year, after the earthquake, the College engaged in an awareness and discussion forum about Haiti. There were two sessions and both were well attended. Tina Flores has worked in the Caribbean for years bringing medical supplies to nations in need. Tina is dynamic and a whirlwind of enthusiasm for outreach to our sister republics. There will be short videos, discussions, and updates on conditions in Haiti since the quake. This event will be held from 12 to 2 p.m. in Room 405 (IOB).
