Welcome to Chabot College!

I want to personally welcome you to our learning community, a community in which diversity is not only valued but cherished. Our African American, Asian, Pacific Islander, and Latino teachers, staff, and students bring a wealth of cultural experiences and perspectives to our programs and classrooms.

Chabot College has been the first step along the path to college learning and success for generations of seekers who are now shaping our region, state, and country. For over half a century the College has delivered superb educational opportunities, support, and mentoring to students just like you. As an educator at Chabot for thirty years, I am awed by the persistence, endurance, and achievement of our graduates, who transfer to excellent universities or complete degrees and certificates in one of our career technical preparation programs. Our students and staff represent a virtual rainbow of diverse cultures, one of our greatest riches at Chabot.

We are proud to be the open door to higher education for many Dreamers and for those who are first in their families to attend college. We are committed to social, economic, and environmental justice, areas of passion and purpose for many Chabot students, teachers, and staff. I hope to meet you along your pathway to success here and beyond as you join our wonderful community of teachers and learners.

Dr. Susan Sperling
Chabot College President

Chabot College at a Glance

Fall 2015 Students by Race-ethnicity

Chabot College serves a diverse population of 13,500 students in five major ethnic groups. Between 50 and 90 percent of each ethnic group are first generation college students. With the majority of each ethnic group also starting community college at the Basic Skills level in both English and Math, our students need substantial guidance and support to navigate through college to successful degree and transfer outcomes.

Fall 2015 - Chabot College Office of Institutional Research

Student Support (Re)defined

Student Support (Re)defined aimed to understand how community colleges can feasibly deliver support both inside and outside the classroom to improve success for all students. We asked nearly 900 students from 13 California community colleges what they think supports their educational success—paying special attention to the factors African Americans and Latinos cited as important to their achievement.

Six Success Factors: Through Student Support (Re)defined, the RP Group reviewed leading studies on effective support practices and interviewed both practitioners and researchers to identify "six success factors" that contribute to students' achievement:

- Directed: Students have a goal and know how to achieve it
- Focused: Students stay on track—keeping their eyes on the prize
- Nurtured: Students feel somebody wants and helps them to succeed
- Engaged: Students actively participate in class and extracurricular activities
- Connected: Students feel like they are part of the college community
- Valued: Students' skills, talents, abilities and experiences are recognized; they have opportunities to contribute on campus and feel their contributions are appreciated

The RP Group conducted Student Support (Re)defined with support from The Kresge Foundation (2011-2014) and participated as a key partner in Completion by Design (2011-2013), an ongoing initiative of the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

Welcome to the Chabot Family

As the Dean of Special Programs & Services and the founder of the Black Education Association (BEA), I invite you to “officially” join the Chabot family and build essential social and career networks before graduating into the workforce and/or transferring to a four-year college or university.

The Black Education Association was established in 2014 and was modeled after the Chicano-Latino Education Association (CLEA). Faculty, classified professionals, and administrators of African descent from the Chabot/Las Positas District came together to develop strategies to support students through culturally relevant programs, services, and events.

Chabot has a diverse campus community with high student-faculty engagement. This year we are excited to support the Asian Pacific Islander Education Association (APIEA) as they develop new support systems for students.

We are committed to making sure that all students of color feel supported, as our faculty, staff and administrators do their best to make Chabot a place where you feel empowered to reach your goals, no matter who you are or where you’ve come from.

I hope to get to know you in the coming year and look forward to supporting your academic and personal success at Chabot College!

“One of the lessons that I grew up with was to always stay true to yourself and never let what somebody else says distract you from your goals.” - Michelle Obama

ACHIEVEMENT & SUCCESS
PROGRAMS

The Daraja Program is a learning community designed to promote transfer and to increase academic and personal success. This program, based at the Chabot College Hayward, California campus, addresses students' needs through academic support services and a curriculum focused on African-American literature, history, and issues facing the African-American community. Daraja is for students who are serious about getting a good education, willing to work hard, and want to study the topics Daraja covers. Daraja students persist longer in college with better grades and transfer to four-year colleges and universities at a higher rate.

Emani Sosa
Major: Psychology

Daraja made a huge impact on my life. I have been on honor roll several times because of the support and help I've received from Daraja. I would like to thank Daraja for always believing in me, even when I didn't believe in myself. I would like to add this self-reminder to everyone who reads this that I wish I would've learned a long time ago: Be kind to yourself. You will make it. You will get through the tough times and you will succeed.

Striving Black Brothers Coalition

In 2006 African American males were the lowest performing and lowest retained community at Chabot College.

To combat this systemic problem, Art Barboza founded the Striving Black Brothers Coalition. The coalition exists to address the most persistent obstacles in this community. It's voluntary membership is comprised of African American men who possess a burning desire and vision for success.

SBBC's family-oriented philosophy recognizes members as whole persons and empowers them to overcome personal daily obstacles. Through striving relentlessly to attain dreams and goals together, brothers construct a mindset of self-determination used in college and far beyond.

Robert Pinkney
Major: Kinesiology
SBBC is a program that models accountability. Being in the programs comes with a code of conduct that helps to keep each student focused. It feels good to come into our weekly meetings and share with the brothas that progress is being made in the classroom. Additionally, I have made tremendous strides in my community awareness and my campus involvement through the Striving Black Brothers Coalition.

The Striving Black Brothers Coalition meets every Thursday

Our aim is to develop and strengthen how we demonstrate love for ourselves, our sisters, and others.

Larissa Palmer
Major: Kinesiology & Sociology

This group has helped me academically by surrounding me with a support system (my sisters) that are all aiming for a similar goal, to succeed in college and in life. I can call on any of my sisters or my coordinator to help me with my academics or point me in the right direction.

Terilynn Diggs
Major: Physical Therapy

P U E N T E

The mission of the Puente Project is not only to increase the number of educationally underserved and under-represented students who enroll and earn degrees in four-year colleges and universities, but to also increase the number of those who return to the community as leaders and mentors in service of succeeding generations. Puente is open to ALL interested students.

Puente is an academic, counseling and mentoring program supporting students as they build the skills necessary for success in both academic and career goals while at Chabot College. Students in Puente work closely with their counselor, English instructor and mentor to prepare for transfer to four-year colleges and universities.

Carla Garcia
Major: Sociology

Joining the Puente Program is a good experience to have. You end up connecting with your classmates as a family and you stay connected with other people who you meet along the way. The counselors helped me figure out what classes I should take, find outside connections and matched me with mentors.

Jose Luis Rodriguez
Major: Computer Science & Engineering

Even if you are not the first in your family to go to college, I highly recommend this program. You'll be more aware of the opportunities, financial assistance, and transfer process. This program will give you the tools and knowledge about college that will get you on track towards transferring.

Latin@s With Purpose (LWP)

Latin@s with Purpose is a club based organization created to influence the growth and betterment of our Latino communities by equipping young Latin@s with lasting tools, support and encouragement needed for all of life's unexpected detours. We advocate for young latin@s and their families in our community and create pathways for personal success. We attempt to address the challenges of many latinos and reduce some issues that causes a large majority to drop out from schools and to head down a path of hardships.

Raúl Figueroa, Vice-President
Major: Computer Science

I decided to join LWP for a better college experience. Attending classes in itself is not enough, I felt isolated from Chabot even though I went there almost everyday. I felt the need to do more and be active in the community. I wanted to meet more people, people that shared similar goals with me.

Jackeline Gonzalez
Major: Math

*I decided to join the club during my second semester at Chabot to grasp a sense of belonging and be able to contribute my time to the community's needs. Not only did I gain personally, but I was also able to reflect on my experience with my academics. The connections you build while part of the club allow you to discover new resources on and off campus, and introduce you to support groups that are always there to help you ensure your success.

For more information, please contact:

THE MISSION OF CARNAL IS TO BUILD A BROTHERHOOD BY CONNECTING WITH ONE ANOTHER, TO OVERCOME PERSONAL AND ACADEMIC BARRIERS. WE FOCUS ON BEING ROLE MODELS TO PROMOTE IMPROVEMENTS IN OUR COMMUNITIES. WE DO THIS BY DEVELOPING AND UNITING LEADERS AMONGST LATINOS AT CHABOT COLLEGE.

Christian Barragan
Major: Sociology/ Chicano Studies

We (CARNAL) focus on being role models in our communities in order to promote improvements. Every Thursday I wake up in a positive mood because I get to see my second familia united, wearing the same brown guayabera with pride. This support group has helped me in many ways including my academics and personal life.
